

Comment

Why now, why 2012?

““ In this doom-and-gloom era it is the best time to change your life and get yourself into business with a reputable well-established franchisor.

Because staying employed is not going to change anything. Going into business might seem scary but staying in your same old rut can be far more dangerous.

You can enhance not only your financial security but your work-life balance which I have seen tenfold from many of our franchisees.

Len Donnelly says: “Since I became a franchise owner my work/home life balance has improved greatly.”

So if you’ve been toying with the idea of having a franchise, now is the time to do it, don’t end up wishing you’d done it years ago! To be successful requires hard work and commitment.”

Carol Stewart-Gill is the founder of Dublcheck, a management franchise that provides commercial cleaning